

The Current Presidential

An update to the lyrics of
"A Modern Major General"

From

The Pirates of Penzance
with apologies to Gilbert and Sullivan

I am opposite of every prior Presidential I'm clueless of facts vegetable, animal or mineral,
I flunked the Kings of England but can quote fist-fights historical From Muhammad to Trump-McSahn, in order pugilatical;

I'm not the least acquainted, too, with matters 'mathematical',
I hired kids to take my tests on Simple and Quadratical,
Mention binomial theorem and I will need to take a snooze,
But I can make up facts that prove the Truth is nothing but Fake News.

I don't know what the Constitution is or says, nor do I care,
On flags and honor, whose my friend or enemy ... you got me there,
But, I can tell a rigged investigation from long affair,
And was not at the crime scene 'cause I'm never mentally all there.

In short, in matters moral, intellectual or testicle,
I am the opposite of every prior Presidential.
